1. Reserved rights of ASPT

- a. ASPT reserves the right to amend the tournament series in its entirety, including but not limited to its schedule, payout, and structures.
- b. ASPT reserves the right to stream any event in the tournament series.
- c. By participating in an ASPT tournament, players consent to being photographed, filmed, recorded, and broadcasted through any medium.
- d. Players acknowledge that contacts and personal details will be included in the ASPT database, by agreeing upon ASPT privacy policy, potentially resulting in the receipt of marketing materials related to ASPT.

2. TDA rules

- a. ASPT follows the TDA rules.
- b. All regulations that are set forth in the articles and clauses to follow take precedence over the TDA rules.

3. Currency

- a. All buyins and payouts are in Korean Won.

4. Age Limit

- a. The minimum age to participate in any event is 19.

5. Guarantees

- a. Guarantees set on the prize pool guarantee an amount after the deduction of the 3% staff fee.
- b. ASPT reserves the right to cancel or amend guarantees in the face of force majeure, such as natural disasters, social chaos, or any other extraordinary event beyond ASPT's control.

6. Languages

- a. The official language is English.
- b. However, considering the overwhelming percentage of Japanese players, Japanese may be tolerated given that it strictly does not undermine the integrity of the game.

7. Misclicks (Errors in verbal declaration and errors in throwing out chips)

- a. When a player immediately attempts to correct his mistake, the TD can allow the player to redo the action. The following are such examples:
 - i. Blinds are 1000-2000. A player declares "fifty thousand" and then corrects himself by saying, "I meant five thousand."
 - ii. Blinds are 100-200. A player says "raise" and puts out a 5,000 chip. Dealer announces "raise to five thousand", then the player says, "I put out the wrong chip, I wanted to raise to 500."
 - iii. Facing a bet of 2000, a player puts out 3,000. Dealer tells the player that he is supposed to make it to 4,000. The player says he meant to call, and not raise.
- b. The player in question will be warned and may be penalized for creating confusion.
- c. This house rule aims to do the following.
 - i. It makes it nearly impossible for players to angle shoot by "pretending" to make a mistake in order to disguise the strength of one's hand and trap opponents.
 - ii. It reduces the punishment towards innocent mistakes.
 - iii. It is not the intention of this rule to allow players to easily redo their actions.

8. Accidentally killed hands

- a. Players are responsible for protecting their hands. However, when hands are accidentally killed, the TD will try to restore the hand as much as possible, if he is able to identify them with sufficient certainty, including asking the player what hand he held.
- b. If not, the TD will make a ruling according to the TDA rules.

9. Out of turn actions (OOT)

- a. When a player checks out of turn, he does not have the option to raise if the player in turn decides to bet.
 - i. OOT player still retains the option to check-raise if the player after him bets and the action comes back to him.
- b. Players will get penalized for acting out of turn in the following cases:
 - i. repeated violation
 - ii. intentional violation
 - iii. when the violation caused a non-insignificant loss of EV on another player in a multi-way pot.

10. Usage of electronic devices

- a. Any usage of devices that may compromise the integrity and the security of the game may be banned or restricted at any time at the sole discretion of ASPT .
- b. Any attempts to use any type of devices to undermine the integrity of the game shall be met with disqualification.
- c. Tools and Charts
 - i. Looking at charts and using tools while you have a hand are strictly prohibited, and will receive a heavy penalty including disqualification.
 - ii. Any form of RTA (real time assistance) is strictly prohibited, and the offender will be disqualified.
- d. Phones and tablets
 - i. They must not be used while a player has a hand. The screen must be turned off, or the device must be placed face down.
 - ii. Talking on the phone at the table is not allowed at all times.
 - iii. Texting between players at the same table is strictly prohibited.
 - iv. Floormen reserve the right to check the screen and the content shown on the player's device at all times.
- e. Headphones and earphones
 - i. They are allowed to be in use, including while one is in a hand.
 - ii. They are restricted from use at final tables.
 - iii. Players are encouraged to take them off when they are in a hand. Frequent inattentiveness due to ears being covered may be penalized.
- f. Failure to comply with any of the above will result in a penalty. Serious offenses will incur heavier penalties.

11. Player's obligation to play in a timely manner

- a. ASPT does not condone stalling. All players are obligated to act in a timely manner, and contribute to a smoothly paced game.
- b. ASPT believes that players should be given enough time to decide their actions. However, ASPT strongly discourages excessively slow actions, and may give warnings, penalties, or impose special measures (including an individual shot clock) to such players. Examples include, but are not limited to, the following.
 - i. Routinely taking unnecessary time to fold a that you have already decided to fold. For example, where a few seconds should suffice for routine preflop folds, staring down at your opponents, then taking several seconds to check one's cards, then staring down at your opponents again, and slowly mucking your hand will not be tolerated.
 - ii. Routinely asking the dealer of the current action and bet sizes, while refusing to take off one's headphones.
 - iii. Getting distracted by other activities (phone activities, chatting with a friend, etc.), routinely causing the table to remind you that it is your turn to act.
 - iv. Using an excessive amount of small denomination chips to make bets and raises. If the bet is 3300, using 33 $100 chips is not welcomed.

12. Orbit-for-orbit (round-for-round)

- a. It will be in place when roughly 18%~20% of the field is remaining until the money is reached.
- b. It will also be in place when 9 players are remaining until the Final Table, given that all 7 players at the final table will be in the money.
- c. TD reserves the right to impose orbit-for-orbit in any other situations when it is deemed fit.
- d. A player never pays the big blind or the ante twice in one orbit.
- e. When multiple players bust out during an orbit, they split the sum of the payouts.
- f. Blinds and limits do not increase during an orbit.
- g. There will be no balancing of the tables during an orbit.

13. Re-entries

- a. All events allow unlimited re-entries.
- b. Players are allowed to forfeit their stack to re-enter the tournament.
- c. Tournaments with multiple Day 1 will use the "Best Stack Forward" system.

14. Payout

- a. All events pay 15% of the field, rounded up.
- b. In all multi-flight events,
 - i. each flight will pay 15% of the field of each flight, rounded up;
 - ii. each flight will play until the money;

15. Deals

- a. Deal makings are not allowed prior to the final table.
- b. All types of deals will be mediated by the floorman in charge.
- c. The floorman will initiate the deal-making only when there is a unanimous interest in making a deal.
- d. Once there is a unanimous agreement to discuss a deal, the floorman in charge will always let the players know the prize distribution based on the Independent Chip Model.
- e. Tournament will terminate if the deal leaves no cash prize to compete over, and the trophy will be awarded to the player who has the most chips.
- f. When a deal is made, all the remaining players will only receive POS points equal to the points that would have been awarded to the worst place finisher.
- g. Players are strictly prohibited from pressurizing others into making a deal.

16. Number of players at the table

- a. It is 8-max except for certain types of games.
- b. The last two tables and the final table will be played 7-max, except for certain types of games.
- c. We reserve the right to add or subtract the number of seats per table depending on the circumstances.

17. Antes

- a. All no-limit and pot-limit games will have a big blind ante of 1bb.
 - i. 2-7NLSD will have an ante of 1bb+1sb.
 - ii. In pot-limit games, ante is excluded in calculating the size of the pot preflop.
 - iii. Big blind is posted prior to the ante.
- b. In stud games, the player who has the button will pay the ante and the bring-in.
 - i. The bring-in will be placed in front of the player who has the lowest door card on 3rd street in Stud Hi and Stud8, or the highest card in Razz, and becomes part of their live bets.
 - ii. The player who has the bring-in starts the action by checking or completing the bet.
 - iii. Ante is posted first prior to the bring-in.

18. Mixed Games

- a. Game changes every orbit.
 - i. In blind games, an orbit always starts with the first player left of the dealer taking the BB. SB and button will be placed accordingly. It ends when the first player right of the dealer has played the BB.
 - ii. In stud games, an orbit always starts with the first player left of the dealer taking the ante / bring-in. It ends when the first player right of the dealer has played the ante / bring-in.
- b. Moving players for table balancing
 - i. A player moving FROM a stud table is the next ante/bring-in player.
 - ii. A player moving TO a stud table takes the seat closest to the ante/bring-in button.

19. Other Rules

- a. Tournament will start when 4 players are seated. Players may start under 4 players if all players are willing to do so.
- b. The first hand of the tournament always starts with the first player left of the dealer taking the BB or the ante/bring-in. SB and button will be placed accordingly.
- c. There will be a seat redraw for the final two tables, the final table, and a new day for multi-day events.
